

2015 Winners

Best short film / Miglior corto metraggio

- In my Brother's Shoes, by Lucia Mauro (U.S.A.)

Lucia Mauro, winner for the Best Short Film, for In My Brother's Shoes (USA).

Alessandro Perrella, director of the docu-fiction La Madonna del Parto (Italy), awarded by the Capax Dei Foundation. Best documentary / Miglior documentario

- Right Footed, by Nicholas Spark (USA)

Jessica Cox, born armless, became the first plane pilot to obtain the brevet driving with her feet. She is also black belt of Judo, she plays the piano and drives an unmodified car. She does motivational conferences. She is the subject that inspired Right Footed by Nicholas Spark, winner of the Best Documentary Award. Here she is with Mgr. Franco Perazzolo, from the Pontifical Council for Culture, who is a permanent member of the jury, and Armando Torno, who presented the event. Best feature film / Miglior film

- Felices los que lloran, by Marcelo Torcida (Paraguay)

Marcelo Torcida won two awards for his film Felices los que lloran (Paraguay). He is awarded here by the famous Italian actor Remo Girone and his wife Victoria Zinny-Girone, also actress. Best leading actor/actress / Miglior attore/attrice protagonista

- Juan del Santo – Flow by David Martínez Álvarez (Spain)

Juan del Santo, winner of the Best Leading Actor for the film Flow by David Martínez Álvarez (Spain).

Best Director / Miglior regista

- Marcelo Torcida for Felices los que lloran (Paraguay) Capax Dei Foundation Award

- La Madonna del parto, docufiction by Alessandro Perrella (Italy)

Liana Marabini and Card. Gianfranco Ravasi.